Patient follow-up process

Announcing the date of post-operative visit to the patient by the international unit

↓

Refer the patient to the specified hospital for the visit in the country of origin

↓

Visit of the patient by the medical staff of the hospital in the country of origin

↓

Does the patient have a special problem in the treatment process?

- ← Announcing the patient's visit time for the next examinations

- → Notification of the patient's clinical report by the treatment staff in the country of origin to the international unit of the destination hospital

↓

Is there a need for the patient to visit the destination country in person?

- ← Carrying out treatment procedures required by the hospital of the country of origin

- → Coordinating to send the patient back to the destination country to continue the required treatment process

↓

Announcing the patient's visit time for the next examinations